Medical Monitoring visit by Dr. Amod from New Delhi

All children and staff at DKSHA Cornerstone Children's Home had an opportunity to meet with Dr. Amod who visits our home once every 6 months for medical monitoring. Dr. Amod attended all children and staff who required a medical check-up and support for any health-related issues. Dr. Amod also addressed our children + staff concerning personal hygiene, First Aid and Health Care. Many thanks to the Miracle Foundation for organizing this activity for the healthy lives of everyone at DKSHA!

Summer Activities

The children's school year is completed at the end of April, and doesn't begin again until early June. During the break many children will stay at DKSHA Cornerstone and take part in our Summer Activities Project. It consists of arts and crafts, cooking, and many other things! Thank you to the Miracle Foundation for supporting this project!

MANOS UNIDAS of Spain visits DKSHA!

Mr. Ramon and Ms. Mercedes Hernando of Manos Unidas came to visit the DKSHA Farmers Project titled 'Agro Based Development against Poverty & Towards Self-Reliance in 15 village communities in Manapparai of Tiruchirappalli District, Tamil Nadu in South India'. This is a 3 years long project started in January 2015 and will be completed in January 2019 thanks to the fruitful collaboration and support of Manos Unidas. This Project is making very good progress and creating a positive impact in the lives of more than 300 male and female farmers and their families in our region.

The official Project Monitoring Visit included Ms. Mercedes Hernando and Mr. Ramon who came to DKSHA on the 15th of June. Also joining them were Fr. A. Soosai Alangaram - Secretary TMSSS and Fr. B. John Selvaraj Assistant - Director TMSSS, Diocese of Tiruchy. Mr. L. Arockiadoss - Project Director, Mr. Isaac Arulappan - Project Coordinator, 3 Field Staff: Ms. Radha, Mr. Chinnaiyah & Mr. Raja, and our Accountant Mr. Thomas William along with Ms. Lindsay, a Volunteer from the USA. Everyone received a warm welcome and were shown samples of the grain Millet collected from the beneficiary farmers along with all of the project's progress details.

Mr. Isaac Arulappan, Project Coordinator, shared a brief History of DKSHA & Cornerstone Orphanage then proceeded to explain the farming project's implementation and Organic Farming Handbook. Isaac showed the project's stage by stage execution with the cooperation of its Staff Team, including Mr. Thomas William who shared all of the accounts information. It was a very fruitful meeting and we were blessed to receive very positive feedback!

"We are so glad that we came to your home and shared your work with us, as we could see with our own eyes not only your knowledge on the project and how you keep records (which are highest standard) but the spirit behind it which makes it even more valuable."

Ms. Mercedes Hernando
-Tamil Nadu and Sri Lanka Country
Officer for Manos Unidas
